The Architectural Association School of Architecture

The AA is the oldest independent school of architecture in the UK. It was founded in 1847 as a student-centred collective that aspired to radically transform architectural education. Since then, it has fostered an environment that encourages students to speculate without limitations, take risks with confidence and cultivate individual, radical research that shapes the future of the discipline.

The AA occupies ten Georgian houses in central London as well as a 350-acre woodland site at Hooke Park in Dorset. The school offers a broad range of flexible, self-directed programmes that empower students and staff to challenge established methods within contemporary architectural education and professional practice.

Our curriculum is enhanced by the AA Public Programme, which focuses on the unique opportunities and challenges of the present through a series of lectures, exhibitions, workshops, symposia and book launches. All of our events are open to the public and free to attend.

The Architectural Association offers the following degrees:

- Foundation Award
